RFP No. ASLM/10/06/21

RFP for Selection of Contractor

ASLM Organisational Salary Review and Benchmarking Exercise
ASLM Organizational Capacity Assessment and Development

Background

The African Society for Laboratory Medicine (ASLM) was created in 2011 in response to the need for an African-led organization to advocate for efficient and sustainable laboratory systems. ASLM is a Pan-African organization endorsed by African ministries of health, that works towards improving the quality of diagnostics through five strategic pillars: Laboratory Quality, Workforce Development, Policy and Regulation, Laboratory Networks and Systems, and Data and Communication. ASLM serves laboratory networks, facilities and professionals to advance the practice of laboratory medicine, laboratory-related science and the laboratory profession in general.

Objective of the Request for Proposal

ASLM is looking for a contractor who will assist ASLM with: (1) Conducting job evaluation and benchmarking ASLM salaries to the Market in all the countries of operation, (2) Develop a salary scale for South African Office and (3) Review the benefits package and assist in the review and development of New Human Resources Manual which will incorporate international practices in the remuneration and Benefits package and progression from one job grade to the next.

Specific Focus of this Consultancy

Task 1: Conducting job evaluation and Benchmarking

- Review job descriptions and conduct any necessary staff/management interviews to gain a solid understanding of the roles and responsibilities of each position.
- Conduct a job evaluation, compensation review and pay grade study for all positions that creates a more systematic and equitable classification structure.
- Identify and define appropriate external labour market comparables considering nature, size, population, economic climate, proximity, etc.
- Conduct, tabulate, analyze and summarize a survey of identified (benchmark) positions against appropriate comparators.
- Recommend a compensation pay structure including salary ranges for each job classification that defines the number of pay steps or minimum/maximum for each range for all regular full-time positions.
- Complete internal salary relationship analysis including the development of appropriate internal relationship guidelines to ensure internal equity.
- Recommend and describe in detail methodologies to be utilized for the ongoing maintenance of the classification and compensation system.

Task 2: Develop a salary scale for South African Office

- Review the proposed organogram for South African office and understand the job descriptions for every position
- Evaluate the roles for the proposed positions and classify a pay grade for each position
• Identify and define appropriate external labour market comparables and determine and recommend starting salary maximum salary for every position

Task 3: Review the benefits package and assist in the review and development of New Human Resources Manual which will incorporate international practices in the remuneration and Benefits package and progression from one job grade to the next.

• Conduct a review of the benefits package provided to staff in comparison to appropriate comparator organizations.

• Identify areas of shortfall or generous components of the current benefits package that warrant review.

• Recommend labour best practices for benefits package depending on the location of the job

• Review the current HR manual as to salary review and adjustments to inflation, market and merit, and propose best practices to incorporate all the 3 adjustments in our policy
